Numb. 1820

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 26. to Monday April 30. 1683.

Warsaw, April 16.

THe 10th Instant the Dyet was again prolonged for eight days, and considering the good disposition things are in, there is all the reason in the world to believe it will have a happy Conclusion. The Moscovite Ambassador has had three several Conferences with the Commissioners appointed to Treat with him; his chief business, as we are informed, is to demand the execution of the Treaty concluded between this Crown and the last Czar, and he has been answered, That the Moscovites have not on their part made good the said Treaty; but as to any Overture of the Czars entring into an Alliance against the Turks, we do not hear that any mention has been made of it by the Ambassador, but it is said, That an Ambassador will be sent from hence to Moscovy, to propose it.

Copenhagen, April 24. Our Fleet is hastening out, and many of the Ships are almost ready to Sail. The King will part from hence for Holstein the beginning of the next Month, and in the mean time his Troops are Marching to their Rendezvous. They are expecting at this Court, with some Impatience, an account of Monsieur Bierman's Success at Berlin, (whither he went after having performed his Commission to the Dukes of Lunenburg) for much seems to depend upon it, and it's believed our King will not enter upon any great Enterprize unless he be certain of his Electoral Highness's concurrence therein. From Stockholm they write, That the Preparations that are making here by Sea and Land do give the King of Sueden great Jealousie, he looking upon them as the effect of the League lately concluded between this Crown and the Most Christian King; and that the King of Sueden continues his Resolution of sending a Body of Men to his Territories in Germany, but that he will not transport them all together, but in Parties and at different times.

Vienna, April 22. The Imperial Troops are marching to their Rendezvous, and the Duke of Lorrain will part from hence on Saturday next for Hungary, to mark out a Camp near Presbourg, and to give the necessary Orders for the preparing things against the opening of the Campagne. The Emperor's Harbingers are gone for Presbourg, to provide Quarters for the Court. Their Imperial Majesties remove from hence on Monday next to Laxemburg, and from thence they will go about the beginning of the next Month to Presbourg. His Imperial Majesty was this week to see the Train of Artillery, and the Wagons laden with Ammunition, which will begin to March the 24th Instant under a Convoy of 1500 Horse. The Elector of Bavaria is expected here in few days; he will come without any great Train, intending to be here incognito. It is reported, that the Elector of Saxony, and several other Princes of the Empire, will be likewise present at the Rendezvous of the Imperial Army, but without any certainty. While we are thus preparing on this side to take the Field, we have an account, That the Grand-Signior is parted from Adrianople; That his Troops are marching to their Rendezvous, and that the Grand-Vizier will be at Belgrade the latter end of this Month; That Count Teckeley is drawing his Troops together, having appointed their Rendezvous near Rossenau, and that he has, to strengthen his Army, withdrawn his Safeguards from the Berg-Towns; That the report that was spread abroad of his having great mistrusts of the Turks appears to be without ground; That on the contrary there is a very intimate Correspondence between him and the Vizier of Offen, and that Count Teckeley was going to Offen to confer with him concerning the War. We have Letters from Warsaw which tell us, That the Dyet would end the day after, and that it was not doubted but they would finish all the Important matters before them.

Cologne, April 27. From Ausbourg they write, That the Deputies of the Duke of Wirtemberg and the Bishop of Constance, who are Directors of the Circle of Suabia, were parted from thence without concluding any thing with the Deputies of Bavaria upon the Proposals that have been made for the Circle of Suabia's entring into the Alliance which the Circles of Bavaria and Franconia have made with the Emperor. From Munichen, That the Elector of Bavaria has had frequent Conferences with the Prince of Waldeck, General of the Forces of the Empire; and that his Electoral Highness intended to part in few days for Vienna, to accompany the Emperor to the General Rendezvous of his Army, which will be held the beginning of the next Month near Presbourg: And from Francfort, That the Count de Hohenloe, the Imperial Minister, was passed through that City in his way to Darmstadt and Mentz, having a Commission to those Princes; and that by an Express arrived there they had advice of the Death of the Bishop of Wirtsbourg and Bamberg.

Hamburg, April 30. The generality of people seem to expect a War will break out in these Northern parts, the Preparations that are making giving the occasion for such an Opinion; but those that pretend to be well informed tell us, That the King of Denmark will not engage himself unless he have the Elector of Brandenburg on his side, and concerning his Electoral Highness's Resolutions there are at this time very different Reports; which of them is best grounded we shall be able to learn from the Success of Monsieur Bierman, the Danish Envoy's, Negotiation, who is now at Postdam. This City in the mean time makes what Provision they can for their Defence, by raising of Men, and making some new Fortifications before the Altena and the Steen-Gate, and by sending